Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Emily Charlene Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Johnson (Jody Raiswater), of Crewe, to Mr. Thomas Edward Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas S. Hopkins, of Blackstone, took place at 3 p.m. Sunday, June 12 at Grace Baptist Temple in Blackstone.

Rev. Ronald L. Gallacher, brother of the bride and pastor of Nottoway Baptist Tabernacle in Burkeville, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. Gordon L. Morris, pastor of Grace Baptist Temple. Mr. Joel McLuen, of Richmond, presented a program of traditional wedding music on the organ, and accompanied Mrs. Doris Schodt, of Crew, who sang "O,Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a full-length gown of white organza. The bodice had a scoop neck trimmed in silk venice lace and seed pearls, with a dainty ruffle around the neckline. The sleeves were gathered into a cuff and ruffled with venice lace at the wrists. The raised waistline fell into a full cathedral train with a deep bias ruffle, and appliques of venice lace adorned the skirt. Her matching veil featured a raised camelot cap with seed pearls and appliques of venice lace, and the matching venice lace also bordered the fingertip silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses, miniature carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath, with stephanotis also decorating the white streamers.

Mrs. Nancy Lipscomb, of Richmond, was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of pastel blue polyester crepe, with a matching chiffon cape. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and tinted pompoms, and wore a circular garland of matching flowers in her hair.

Bridesmaids were Miss Kim Ison, cousin of the bride, from Crewe, and Miss Patricia Hood of Burkeville. Their gowns were identical to the honor attendants, and they carried spring bouquets of tinted pom-poms and statice. Their headpieces of matching flowers were similar to the honor attendants.

Flower girls were Miss Julia Ann Gallagher and Miss Jennifer Jean Gallagher, both nieces of the bride. They wore floor-length dresses of pastel blue dotted Swiss, trimmed in white daisy lace, and they wore half-circles of baby's breath in their hair.

Ringbearer was Troy Dale Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garland L. Jenkins, of Crewe.

Mr. Silas S. Hopkins was his son's best man. Ushers were Mr. Wayne Hopkins, brother of the groom, Mr. Rickey Eanes of Burkeville, Mr. Jimmy Lipscomb, of Richmond, and Mr. Hal Dalton, of Burkeville.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Johnson chose a floor-length gown of shrimp polyester crepe, with a matching chiffon cape. She wore a cymbidium orchid corsage.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Hopkins wore a floor length dress of cotton polyester with blue flowers on an ecru background. Her corsage was a cymbidium orchid.

Mrs. Peggie Gallagher of Burkeville, was mistress of ceremonies. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Iron Bridge Grange. Miss Teresa Kay Jeter of Blackstone presided at the guest register. Mrs. Edna Clements of Crewe, served the wedding cake, and Mrs. Peggie Gallagher served at the punch bowl.

For travel, the bride chose a dress of pale yellow quiana with a square neckline. Her corsage of white roses was lifted from her bridal bouquet.

After a Southern wedding trip, the couple will make their home in rural Crewe.
